at Supreme Court Sydney
on 22 April 2022

2019/00193556-001 / Summons: Kerry Michael Quirk v Suncorp Portfolio Services Limited in its capacity as trustee for the Suncorp Master Trust

HH makes orders in terms of the short minutes of order as amended, initialled and dated today's date.

Short Minutes of Order

1 The time for compliance by the Plaintiff with Order 4 of the Court's Orders made on 26 October 2021 be extended to 6 May 2022.

2 The Usual Order for Hearing made on 2 June 2021 be vacated.

3 If any party requires the tender of an original document, notice in writing should be given to all other parties no later than 4pm on 26 April 2022.

4 By no later than 4pm on 6 May 2022 each party must notify each other party in writing of any additional documents that party proposes should be included in the Electronic Court Book.

5 No later than 4pm on 10 May 2022 all parties' barristers or solicitors shall cause to be filed with the Court a folder of all affidavits, statements and reports to be relied upon at trial with an index setting out in alphabetical order:

a. the name of the deponent or maker of the statement or report;

b. the date of the affidavit, statement or report; and

c. a short statement identifying the role of the deponent or the maker of the statement or report.

6 By no later than 4pm on 10 May 2022 each party shall advise each other party in writing:

a. which of the specified additional documents may be included in the Electronic Court Book by consent;

b. whether the authenticity of any document, and if so which, is disputed; and

c. insofar as any document (already included and/or proposed to be included) may not be included in the Electronic Court Book by consent the grounds for the objection to its inclusion.

7 Not later than 4pm on 10 May 2022 all documents, whether by consent or otherwise, sought to be relied upon by all parties are to be included in the proposed Electronic Court Book in chronological order.

8 No later than 4pm on 10 May 2022 each party shall, by notice in writing to each other party, state whether he or she proposes to object to the whole or any part of any affidavit or statement of evidence and the grounds for the objections.

9. No later than 4pm on 11 May 2022 the plaintiff shall file, paginated and indexed, two copies of the Court Book intended to be tendered at the hearing by any party. The index of documents should indicate documents the tender of which is agreed and, in relation to the documents as to which there is no agreement, which documents they are and whether lodged on behalf of the plaintiff or on behalf of any other party to the proceedings and, if so, which party.

10. No later than 4pm on 18 May 2022, each barrister or solicitor for the parties shall cause to be filed and served a short outline of submissions, a statement of the real issues for determination, a list of authorities and a chronology of relevant events.

11. Liberty to apply on three days' written notice.
